PENN STATE NEWS

Penn State earns 100th Big Ten Championship!

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — The Penn State football team's Big Ten Championship win over Wisconsin last Saturday was historic not only for the football program but also for Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics.

With head coach James Franklin guiding the Nittany Lions to their first Big Ten title since 2008, the win also marked Penn State's 100th Big Ten championship or tournament title since winning its first in 1992. Penn State's initial Big Ten title was delivered by the women's volleyball squad, winning the first of its 16 Big Ten crowns during the 1992-93 academic year, one year after some Penn State sports began competing in the conference.

Full integration of all Penn State sports sponsored by the Big Ten did not occur until 1993-94 (football) and women's soccer began competing as a varsity sport in 1994-95.

Penn State, Michigan and Ohio State are the only conference institutions that have won at least 100 Big Ten titles since 1992-93.

Penn State's comeback 38-31 win over Wisconsin on Dec. 3 in Indianapolis marked the fourth Big Ten Championship for the football program and its first undisputed conference title since the 1994 squad went 8-0. The Nittany Lions were victorious in Lucas Oil Stadium in their first appearance in the Big Ten Football Championship Game since it began in 2011.

Since the fall of 2012, Penn State's 27 Big Ten championships or tournament titles are second in the conference to Michigan's 29. The Nittany Lions won a school record eight Big Ten crowns in 2012-13 and matched that mark in 2013-14. Penn State won five Big Ten championships last year and has captured three in getting 2016-17 off to another successful start.

Since 1992-93, the Nittany Lions' 29 NCAA Championships are easily the most among Big Ten institutions. Maryland is second with 21, followed by Nebraska and Ohio State, with 13.

Penn State has one of the nation's most comprehensive and successful athletic programs, featuring 800 student-athletes across 31 varsity programs (16 men's, 15 women's). The Nittany Lions' 48 NCAA Championships all-time (76 national championships overall) rank No. 5 among all NCAA Division I programs and are the highest total of any college or university east of the Mississippi River.

Penn State student-athletes have an 89 percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate. The Nittany Lions rank No. 4 among all Division I schools with 194 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans all-time and No. 5 among all NCAA institutions.

We will be making a brief rest stop, and our arrival at approximately 10 AM will allow for more shopping/sightseeing before the 2:00 PM matinee performance of SCHOOL of ROCK and WAITRESS. A departure of 7:30 PM will ensure time for dinner before we return home. Please note the running time for both shows is two hours and 30 minutes (one intermission), and the address of the Winter Garden Theatre is 50th & Broadway (SCHOOL of ROCK) and the Brooks Atkinson Theatre is 256 West 47th Street (WAITRESS).

SCHOOL of ROCK – This hilarious new musical, based on the film, follows Dewey Finn, a failed, wannabe rock star who decides to earn a few extra bucks by posing as a substitute teacher at a prestigious prep school. There he turns a class of straight-A students into a guitar-shredding, base-slapping, mind-blowing rock band. Featuring 14 new songs from Andrew Lloyd Webber and all the original songs from the movie, this high-octane smash delivers face-melting guitar riffs and touching romance in equally awesome doses! “An inspiring jolt of energy, joy and mad skillz!” (Entertainment Weekly).

WAITRESS - .Inspired by Adrienne Shelly’s beloved film, WAITRESS tells the story of Jenna (Tony winner Jessie Mueller - Beautiful), a waitress and expert pie maker who dreams of a way out of her small town and loveless marriage. A baking contest in a nearby county and the town’s new doctor may offer her a fresh start, but Jenna must summon the strength to rebuild her own life. “Waitress is a little slice of heaven!” (Entertainment Weekly).
